THE WIRZ MONUMENT.

The inscription to be placed upon the conument of Major Henry Wirz, C. S. A., which is to be erected at Andersonvill, Ga., was selected Saturday aftervill, Ga., was selected Saturday afternoon by a committee representing the Georgia Division, Daughters of the Confederacy. Mrs. Sarah Lamar Hull, of Savannah, while head of the Georgia
Division, conceived the idea of erecting a monument to Major Wirz, and it was through her efforts that the fund for it was raised.

The monument is to bear inscriptions on its four sides, and it is believed that at least one of these will cause much congroversy. These inscription were written by Mrs. Gourdin Young, the historian of the Georgia Division, U.D. C. On one side will be the inscription on a bronze tablet: "In Memory of Major Henry Wirz, C. S. A. Born in Zurich, Switzerland, trial by illegal court-martial, under false charges of excessive coulty to federal prisoners, sencourt-martial, under false charges of ex-cessive cruelty to federal prisoners, sen-tenced and judicially murdered at Wash-ing on, D. C., November 10, 1865.

"That the United States government, not Major Wirz, is chargeable with the suffering at Andersonville, there is abun-dant proof furnished by friend and fox Let the fact that he chose an ignominiagainst President Davis speak for high qualities of honor, fortitude and self-sac-

"To rescue his memory from the stigon attached to it by embitted prejudice and ignorance, and to restore it to its rightful place among men, the Georgia Division of the United Daughters of the Confederacy has raised this shaft."

On the second tablet will be engraved:

'Had the efforts of the Confederate gov ernment for an exchange of prisoners been successful, there would have been no prison at Andersouville. The following words of the commander of the federal army abow why these efforts failed:
'It is hard on our men held in Southern prisons not to exchange them, but it is humanity to those left in the ranks to fight our battles. At this particular time to release all rebel prisoners north would .sure Sherman's defeat, and would comomise our safety here.
(Signed) 'ULYSSES S. GRANT.'

The third tablet will contain:

"Onfederates in northern prisons, 220,000. Union soldiers in southern prisons, 270,000. Excess of union prisoners, 50 000. Deaths in northern prisons, 26 536. Deaths in southern pr sons, 22,056. (Stanton's report, July 10, 1866.) Twelve per cent. of all Confederate prisoners died in prison. Less 9 per cent. of the union soldiers died in southern prisons. Facts are eternal."

on the fourth tablet this will appear:

"Letter of President Davis: I have often felt with poignant regret that the southern public have never done justice to the martyr, Major Wirz. He was tempted by the offer of a pardon if he would incriminate me, and thus exonerate himself from the charges of which he was innocent, and with which I had no was innocent, and with which I had no

CLOSING OF A BANK.

Fifty years after it was founded, in 1851, the Bank of North America, of New York, at the height of its prosperity, passed into the control of Charles W. Morse. He had it six years, and now it has passed into the hands of a receiver, having been deserted by most of its depositors since Mr. Morse was forcibly eliminated three months ago.

After an all-day conference between those interested in the affairs of the Na tional Bank of North America it was de tional Bank of North America it was decided late yesterday afternoon to close the bank and liquidate. The decision was reached by President W. F. Havemeyer, Bronson Winthrop, counsel for the bank, and Comptroller of the Currency W. P. Ridgely.

Mr. Havemeyer said last night that he believed the bank is entirely solvent,
